The screenshot shows the Mercury Tours website homepage. The main content area features a large banner for "one cool summer" with an Aruba logo. Below the banner, there's a "Featured Destination" section for Aruba, which includes a globe icon and a photo of a beach. To the right of this, there's a login form with fields for "User Name" and "Password". A large red 'X' is drawn over the entire right side of the main content area, indicating a layout error where the main content does not fill the available width.

This island is surrounded by coral reefs, offers guaranteed sunshine and is blessed with beautiful beaches. Luxury resorts have taken up residence along most of the beachfronts on the southern coast, but there are still undeveloped areas on the exposed northern coast, and much of the interior is inhabited by nothing more substantial than goats.

The screenshot shows a web page with a dark header bar containing navigation links: Selenium ▾, Insurance Project, Agile Project, Bank Project, and Security Project. Below the header is a banner for "one cool summer" featuring an image of people on a water slide and the word "ARUBA". The main content area has a yellow header bar with buttons for SIGN-ON, REGISTER, SUPPORT, and CONTACT. A blue bar below it displays the text "UNDER CONSTRUCTION" and a wrench icon. The main message reads: "This section of our web site is currently under construction. Sorry for any inconvenience." Below this, a note says: "Please press your browser's back button to return to the previous page or click the 'BACK TO HOME' icon below to go to the homepage." At the bottom, there is a footer with a copyright notice: "© 2005, Mercury Interactive (v. 011003-1.01-058)". A red box highlights a specific area in the left sidebar where an advertisement is visible, overlapping the sidebar content.
